

CLEVER JOE BAILEY NEW AGENT HERE.

Mr. J. W. Bailey, of the Wantecka Trust and Banking Company, has been tendered the agency for the Southern Railway at this place, made vacant by the resignation of Mr. C. S. Fullbright, and will accept. Mr. Fullbright is to be cashier of the new People's National Bank and his resignation as Southern ticket agent becomes effective tomorrow, September 1, when Mr. Bailey will assume charge of the Southern's affairs at Hendersonville.

Mr. Bailey is no new man "at the wheel," nor a stranger in Hendersonville. He served as agent here from the latter part of the year 1896 to 1900, was afterwards conductor on the Toxaway line of the Southern and later chief train dispatcher on the Murphy branch, with headquarters at Bryson City. From there he went to Bristol, Tenn., where he served as chief dispatcher for the V. and S. W. railroad under Superintendent F. P. Pelter, who now holds a similar position with the Southern, in this division, and by whom the appointment of Mr. Bailey, as agent here, was recommended.

This selection by Superintendent Pelter is a distinct and deserved compliment to Mr. Bailey, who is not only a "mighty clever" gentleman, but a very efficient railroad man. He has just lots of friends here who will be pleased to hear that he has decided to remain in Hendersonville and serve her people in a position of so great importance.

Wiley Thompson, in jail here, is wanted in Buncombe for recent burglary of a store near Craggy Mountain and may be returned there.

Big Willow Breezes.

We are having some dry weather in our vicinity now.

Rev. R. S. Sentell preached an excellent sermon at Beulah Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Orr made a flying trip to Gladys Branch Friday to visit Rev. Asher Allison, who has been holding a series of meetings there for the past two weeks.

Rev. W. A. Morris returned home Sunday from Balfour where he has been holding a revival meeting.

The general prayer meeting at Beulah will be held on Wednesday night. The young men's prayer meeting on Saturday night. I hope the young men will turn out and, instead of staying out of doors and disturbing the service, go in and take part in the prayer meeting. TONY.

Edneyville Notes.

We Have Been Accused

By reputable citizens of Hendersonville, that, for advertising purposes, we had a certain building in Hendersonville covered with alternate courses of Cortright and a cheaper tin shingle.

We Deny It!

Yet there is a building so covered and a better advertisement could not have been made by the hand of man, for, with half an eye you can see the superior wearing quality of the Cortright.

We Declare It!

Do you want the greatest value in roofing for your money? Do you want the best there is? Do you want roof satisfaction? Buy Cortright! We guarantee it!
